EMPOWERING THE VISION AND VOICES OF WOMEN

ABOUT US We want to hear Your voice & Your story on Our network

About Us – Woman’s Network Magazine

Woman Network Magazine is more than a publication—it’s a movement. Owned by The Women’s Network Company and The Woman’s Network Foundation, our magazine is dedicated to amplifying the voices of women worldwide, providing a powerful platform for those driving change in their industries and communities. We celebrate trailblazers, innovators, and advocates who are making an impact, ensuring their stories are heard and their work is recognized.

With a global reach, we are committed to fostering equality, empowerment, and opportunity. Woman’s Network Magazine serves as a dynamic resource center where women can find the inspiration, knowledge, and support needed to thrive personally and professionally. Through in-depth interviews, expert insights, and industry-leading features, we connect our readers with the tools and resources necessary to succeed in business, leadership, finance, wellness, and beyond.

Founded by Toi Hardy, a visionary entrepreneur, philanthropist, and advocate for women and children, the magazine aligns with her mission to create spaces where women can grow, lead, and leave a lasting impact. Whether highlighting emerging voices or established leaders, Woman’s Network Magazine is dedicated to shaping the future by uplifting those who are shaping the present.

We are more than just a magazine—we are a global force for change. Welcome to Woman’s Network Magazine, where every woman’s story matters, and every voice deserves to be heard.

OUR FOUNDER

Patoria Toi Hardy is a powerhouse entrepreneur, philanthropist, and advocate for women and children. Overcoming a challenging upbringing in Detroit, Michigan, she defied adversity—facing poverty, abuse, and instability—to become a force for change. Excelling academically, she began college at 16 and later leveraged her expertise to launch HAI Marketing Agency, a premier branding, staffing, and production firm serving high-net-worth clients. Within five years, she scaled HAI's revenue from $50K to $1 million. Expanding her reach, she founded Powerful Network Productions, collaborating with industry icons like Drake, Tyga, and Jamie Foxx. Toi's journey is a testament to resilience, strategy, and faith, proving that obstacles can be transformed into opportunities.

As the visionary behind The Women's Network Company, Women's Network Foundation, and Woman's Network Magazine, Toi has dedicated her life to creating platforms that empower women globally. From hosting large-scale networking events to producing impactful content, her mission is to uplift and connect women across industries. Her philanthropy extends to the Yacht Club Children's Charity, which provides essential resources to at-risk youth. With a commitment to education, financial independence, and advocacy, Toi's leadership is breaking barriers and inspiring future generations. "We're building a movement where women support one another at every level—from young dreamers to corporate and political leaders," she affirms. Through her work, Toi continues to shape a legacy of empowerment, impact, and transformation.

MEET OUR EDITOR -IN-CHIEF

Dina Kabdolla

Ms. Kabdolla sets the magazine's editorial direction

Dina Kabdolla is a visionary fashion designer, women's empowerment advocate, and environmental activist dedicated to redefining sustainability in the fashion industry. As the creative force behind "Your Art Has Been Served," her thought-provoking collection challenges the fast fashion cycle, urging consumers to reconsider its environmental and societal costs. Featuring intricate mixed-media pieces, micropen-on-canvas designs, and bold fashion statements, her work merges art with activism.

A strong believer in the power of womanhood, Kabdolla emphasizes the importance of like-minded female friendships that foster growth, love, and entrepreneurship. Her designs have been embraced by celebrities like Paris Hilton and Bebe Rexha, further amplifying her message of conscious consumerism. As Editor-in-Chief of Women's Network Magazine, she continues to champion sustainability, creativity, and female empowerment on a global scale. Her collection is available online at Aya by DK
